

ORGAN CONCERT DANIEL MOULT

CASTLE ASHBY HOUSE - THE GREAT HALL

Saturday 3rd September 2022 - 7.30pm

Daniel Moulton will play the restored 1884 Nicholson Organ of the Great Hall of Castle Ashby House in an absolutely unique concert. This is the first recital in the Great Hall for a generation, and is performed by the country's greatest exponent of the English Organ.

Daniel is an acclaimed international concert organist, Head of Organ Studies at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire, and architect and presenter of the iconic series The English Organ (Fugue State Films).

The programme will include works by Handel, Bach and Schumann, together with Elgar's Imperial March and the Dubois Toccata.

Tickets £25 (plus booking fee) including interval refreshments and a glass of wine. Tickets are available online at Eventbrite using the QR code below - or just search for Daniel Moulton at Castle Ashby - or from 01933 664896. The capacity of the Great Hall is strictly limited.

All tickets must be pre-booked

The concert is held by kind permission of the Castle Ashby Trustees, with all proceeds supporting the work of the church of St Mary Magdalene, Castle Ashby
